Summary:

My thoughts about the selection:

Some examples of questions to answer:

1. How did you feel about the passage? Why?
2. Why did you feel about any of the characters? Why?
3. Did the passages you read make you recall an experience you had? How?
4. Did the passages you read make you wish you could have the same experience? Why?
5. Did the passages you read remind you of another story of author's style of writing? How?

You may even think of other questions.

Perhaps the selection was filled with figurative or metaphorical language, or maybe similes. If so, describe it and relate to it. What kind of sensory language did the writing provoke in you and why.
